William Tooms [William Toombs (Tooms) S7740] seventy seven years of age of the County Caroline and state of Virginia a pensioner on government for services rendered in the Revolutionary war do hereby certify that I was well acquainted with Thomas Chandler who enlisted under Capt. James Fletcher for three years in the continental service. I saw him repeatedly when in service, and served his time out, and returned home, for we lived in the same neighbourhood for several years after. Given under my hand this 11th day of September 1834
