[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

State of Kentucky, Perry County

On this 12th Day of August 1833, personally appeared in open court before the justices of the County Court of Perry County now sitting, James Cordill, a resident of said county and state, aged 80 years, who being first duly sworn according to law and on his oath makes the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832 –

That he entered the service of the United States shortly before General Gates' defeat at Camden [Battle of Camden, August 15-16, 1780], SC as a volunteer for three months in Wilkes County, North Carolina, where he served in Captain John Morgan's Company in Col. Ben Harris' [Major Benjamin Harris'] Regiment, in the line of the State of North Carolina. From Wilkes he marched to the mouth of Rocky River, then back to guard the frontiers of Wilkes against the Tories and Indians, and after serving out his term aforesaid, he was honorably discharged at the mouth of Rocky River in Wilkes County, North Carolina by Col. Noah, who then commanded the Regiment shortly after Gates' defeat. On this route he does not remember any regular officers. Sometime before the Battle of King's Mountain [October 7, 1780] he again volunteered for three months in Wilkes County, where he served in Capt. Samuel Johnson's Company, Col. He marched from there to King's Mountain and was in hearing of the Battle but in the foot party just reached the Battle in time to receive the prisoners as they were taken. He remembers to have seen Col. Shelby [Isaac Shelby] and General Campbell [William Campbell]. He was marched back to Wilkes County. After serving out his term of service he was honorably discharged by Col. Cleveland in Wilkes County, North Carolina.

He was born in Lunenburg County, Virginia. He has long since lost his discharge. He lived in Wilkes County, North Carolina where he served in the War each time. Since the Revolution he has lived in Wilkes and for years past in Kentucky, where he now lives. He recollects General Green [Nathanael Greene], General Gates [Horatio Gates] and General Rutherford [Griffith Rutherford].
