State of Tennessee
Williamson County

On this 12th day of October 1832 personally appeared before the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the County of Williamson now Sitting, William Byers a resident of the State and County aforesaid aged 85 years, who being first duly Sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of an act passed June 7. 1832. That he was born on the 6th day of April 1747 in York County Pennsylvania and removed from thence with his father in 1765 to what is now called York District, South Carolina The first services rendered by him in defence of his country was against the Cherokee Indians at Keowee, Old town, on the head waters of the Savannah river, where the Americans burned down towns belonging to the indians, destroyed their corn, killed some few skulking indians and took some of them prisoners¹. Wm. Byers Sr. his uncle, was his captain, and Col. Neil [Thomas Neel] was commander of the regiments to which his company belonged. His Second tour was the Stono² campaign, in Col Neils [Thomas Neel] regiment, his captains name not recollected. During this campaign he was principally engaged with wagon and train, hauling baggage for the Army, he was also engaged in hauling arms with Six other wagons besides his own from Charleston to Augusta, to supply the soldiers in Gen. Lincolns [Benjamin Lincoln's] army who were then at that place, but before they arrived there an express was sent informing them that Gen Lincolns army had left Augusta; they then followed the express and over took the army Somewhere near the Savannah, the precise place not recollected. In 1780 he was pressed by the Americans and went with his wagon and team to the northward he thinks it was to Wilmington for salt to supply the country and the Army, this was during the time the British were in Charleston.³ He was after this engaged under Col. Bratton [William Bratton], in Gen. Greenes [Nathanael Greene's] army below the Congaree and then with scouting parties through the country until after the battle of Guilford⁴. To the best of his recollections, he has served in all ten or eleven months. Constitutional weakness, the effects of disease produced by the fatigues he underwent during his several campaigns, and the natural infirmities of old age, have greatly impaired his recollections, thereby preventing him from mentioning many incidents, which could otherwise have been brought in to confirm the Statements made in his declaration. In October 1810 he removed from York District South Carolina to Williamson County, State of Tennessee, where he now resides.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any State whatever.

This is to certify that I William Hope⁵ of Williamson County and State of Tennessee have been acquainted personally with the aforesaid William Byers who has sworn to, and subscribed the preceding declaration , since the year 1772 when I was a boy, he was then a married man. I lived within three or four miles of him in York District, South Carolina. He was a true friend to his country, but as we did not serve in the same company, I had no opportunity of being particularly acquainted with his services, but from where he lived, and the situation of the country at that time, I know that he must have been on duty a good deal, and as to character he is as much to be believed as any man.
