State of North Carolina County of Rowan

On this 18th day of August 1835 Personally appeared in open Court before the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions who are the presiding Judges of said Court now sitting Jacob Deal a resident of said County and State aged seventy-three years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. -- That he entered the services of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated: That he was first called into the service as a substitute for his father in Mecklenburg County North Carolina who was drafted in the militia in the fall of the year 1779. That they assembled at Phifer's Red Hill in Mecklenburg now Cabarrus County and under Capt. Richard Graham or Grimes marched to Charlotte where they joined the Battalion under the command of Col. Lillington and marched from thence by Camden to Charleston and was somewhere about 15 days at Fort Moultrie on Sullivan's Island where there was some shooting between the Fort and American ships with the British fleet, his time being nearly expired he was brought back to Charlotte & shortly afterwards discharged upon the arrival of other Militia in Charleston who were taken prisoners when the city was captured -- the time of his service at this expedition was three months.

Soon after his return from this first trip, he was drafted in the militia in Mecklenburg County at Phifer's as aforesaid and marched from thence under the command of Capt. Fulenwidor [Henry Fullenwiden?] to Rocky River -- where General Davidson [William Lee Davidson] was commander, and where Col. Washington's cavalry were stationed for some time, & Col. Dickson's [probably Henry Dixon's] troops of the Regular Army -- while the British troops were at Charlotte after the British retreated from Charlotte the militia came to camp near that place where, their time expired and he was discharged after having served three months --

In the summer of the year 1781 he was again drafted in the militia under Capt. Criminger<sup>1</sup> and marched to little River where they joined General Rutherford's troops and marched from thence to Wilmington & was there at the time they heard the news of the capture of Cornwallis at Yorktown and was discharged at the end of three months, the whole time of his service as a private soldier Dean nine months --

That he was born in North Hampton County Pennsylvania in the year 1762 as his record at home now shows -- that at the age of about 12 years he removed to Mecklenburg County NC and in a few months after removed to Rowan County where he has resided ever since. That he never received any written discharge but once -- and that being sent to the war department it has been there considered as issued in the name of some other person. He further declares that no
