[Methodology: Spelling, punctuation and/or grammar have been corrected in some instances for ease of reading and to facilitate searches of the database. Where the meaning is not compromised by adhering to the spelling, punctuation or grammar, no change has been made. Corrections or additional notes have been inserted within brackets or footnotes. Blanks appearing in the transcripts reflect blanks in the original. A bracketed question mark indicates that the word or words preceding it represent(s) a guess by me. The word 'illegible' or 'indecipherable' or 'undeciphered' appearing in brackets indicates that at the time I made the transcription, I was unable to decipher the word or phrase in question. Only materials pertinent to the military service of the veteran and to contemporary events have been transcribed. Affidavits that provide additional information on these events are included and genealogical information is abstracted, while standard, 'boilerplate' affidavits and attestations related solely to the application, and later nineteenth and twentieth century research requests for information have been omitted. I use speech recognition software to make all my transcriptions. Such software misinterprets my southern accent with unfortunate regularity and my poor proofreading skills fail to catch all misinterpretations. Also, dates or numbers which the software treats as numerals rather than words are not corrected: for example, the software transcribes "the eighth of June one thousand eighty six" as "the 8th of June 1786." Please call material errors or omissions to my attention. Researchers should not rely solely on the transcripts but should review the originals for themselves. These transcripts are intended as an aid to research, not to be used in lieu thereof.]

Gentlemen/

When I was last in Town, in February last, I applied for an Indent on an Order of James Graham's, which was due him for 12 Months Service in Lt. Col. Maham's [Hezekiah Maham's] State Legion; by some means I left the Order in the Treasury without getting the Indent thereon, his proper Account then lying before a Committee of the House in this there appears to have been a Mistake, he having taken a Certificate of his Service (Wrote by Capt. Stevens, who writes in the Auditor General's Office) in the Name of James Grimes, – in this Name his account is audited, but he has Signed his Name to the order for his Indent James Graham – which is his proper Name – should esteem it particularly kind of you, to Satisfy your selves on this head by Showing this to Capt. Stevens, in order that you may be Clear in sending his Indent, which should amount to £56 – Sterling

I am Gentlemen respectfully

Your Most Obedient Humble Servant

S/ Wm Murrell
